

April Newsletter 2020

Not my normal type of newsletter which is usually filled with what we have been doing and what we will be doing. I wish there was a full 'Diary Dates', and that I was celebrating different achievements and sharing the attendance for each class but I'm hopeful it won't be too long before the events will start again and the classes will be filled with laughter. I have included a poem that you may have already read. If any of the children would like to write their own poems about lockdown and send them into to me via email, I would love to share them on our school website.

Please keep safe and keep in touch.

Take care

Katie Haycock

And the people stayed home.

And the people stayed home. And read books, and listened, and rested, and exercised, and made art, and played games, and learned new ways of being, and were still. And listened more deeply. Some meditated, some prayed, some danced. Some met their shadows. And the people began to think differently.

And the people healed. And, in the absence of people living in ignorant, dangerous, mindless, and heartless ways, the earth began to heal.

And when the danger passed, and the people joined together again, they grieved their losses, and made new choices, and dreamed new images, and created new ways to live and heal the earth fully, as they had been healed.

Sporting achievements

Well done to Noah Johnson who, before lockdown, achieved a place in the Cleveland County Cricket team. I'm sure it is not quite how he envisaged his maiden season being but we are very proud of him!

RRSA: every week we will aim to post resources linked to an Article of the Week on our school website in the Home Learning Section.

School website

The school website has a designated Home Learning page with useful websites for learning at home.

School twitter account is @WolvistonPrim

We now also have a school facebook page too.

Class 4 Residential trip June 2020

We are still unable to make any decision in case it impacts on losing money but as soon as we know what we can do we will update you. Thank you for your patience.
